EXTREMELY RARE HAYS 38

732 1794 Hays 38. Obverse resembles Hays 37 but has die break behind head, also the single hair terminating the upper lock instead of inclining downwards as in 37, leaves the strand of hair in a horizontal position. Rx. Six berries on each branch, ribbon knot large, very long fraction line which extends almost to ends of the ribbon and last "O" of fraction almost touches the line. Imperfect double leaf under "T" in cent only the top of the one at right shows, appearing as a coarse dot in field to left of two lower berries. First S and T in STATES quite close, and A is distant from M in AMERICA. Dark brown, strictly very fine. Extremely rare. Should bring in a big price.

733 1794 Hays 48. Almost perfectly centered, but die break is nearer pole, though the usual break which starts from milling to 4 in date, runs almost parallel with pole. Light brown. Extremely fine. Rare and choice.
